BSE/TSE Statement

July 9, 2018

Dear Valued Customer,

Please be advised that Innophos' inorganic phosphate products do not contain animal derived materials in either their raw materials, processing aids or in the process used in their manufacture. In addition, these products do not come in direct contact with animal products during storage or transportation. Therefore, our inorganic phosphate products cannot be a source of Bovine Spongiform Encephalitis (BSE) or Transmissible Spongiform Encephalitis (TSE).
