The sale of Products shall not expressly or impliedly grant to Buyer any right or license of any kind under any patent, patent application, or other industrial property right owned or controlled by Seller or its affiliates, but the foregoing shall not be understood to limit in any way the right of Buyer to use and sell such Products, in the event such Products, as sold hereunder, are covered by any such patent.

16. Waiver. Seller's waiver of any breach, or failure to enforce any of the terms and conditions of these Terms, at any time, shall not in any way affect, limit or waive Seller's right thereafter to enforce and compel strict compliance with every term and condition hereof. The acceptance by the Seller of any payment after the specified due date shall not constitute a waiver of the Buyer's obligation to make further payments on the specified dates. No waiver of any provision of these Terms by Seller shall be valid unless made in writing and signed by Seller.
17. Termination. In the event of Buyer's breach, bankruptcy or insolvency, or if any proceeding is brought against Buyer under the bankruptcy or insolvency laws, Seller shall be entitled to cancel any or all orders then outstanding and shall receive reimbursement for its cancellation charges, which include but are not limited to all costs, direct and indirect, for labor, materials, tools, overhead, and profit to which Seller would be entitled had the order not been canceled. 18. Governing Law. The Buyer and Seller agree that these Terms shall be deemed to have been made and executed in the State of New York and that any dispute arising under these Terms and/or the relationship of the parties shall be resolved in accordance with the laws of the State of New York excluding any choice of law principles thereof. The parties disclaim the applicability of the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods.
19. Disputes. The parties shall endeavor in good faith to resolve any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to these Terms and/or the relationship of the parties, or the breach, termination or validity thereof, by an in-person negotiation between executives at the offices of the party giving notice of dispute hereunder (or at such other location as the parties may agree), which shall occur within 30 days of written notice of dispute by either party to the other. All reasonable requests for information or documents made by one party to the other will be honored promptly. If the dispute remains unresolved 45 days after such notice, the parties shall attempt in good faith to resolve the dispute by confidential, non-binding mediation under the CPR Mediation Procedure in New York, NY. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the mediator will be selected by the parties from approved CPR mediation panel members within 10 days of a party's notice to conduct mediation, failing which the mediator shall be appointed by CPR from such panel members. Any such matter, which remains unresolved 45 days after appointment of a mediator, shall be settled by confidential, binding arbitration by three arbitrators in accordance with the CPR Rules for Non-Administered Arbitration. Within 10 days of notice by either party issued following the mediation period, each party shall select one arbitrator from approved CPR panel members for commercial disputes, and within 10 days of such selections, the two arbitrators shall select the third from such CPR panel members. If any such selection by a party or the two arbitrators shall not be made on time, CPR shall make the selection in question. Discovery shall be limited to one set of interrogatories by each party to be issued within 10 days of the final appointment of arbitrators. Interrogatories shall be limited to requests for information or documents which are reasonable in scope and necessary for the arbitration proceeding; and responses shall be due within 30 days of receiving interrogatories. Depositions shall not be permitted, except as allowed by approval of the third arbitrator, whose rulings on issues of discovery shall be final and unappealable. Any hearing shall be conducted on a single day, unless a majority of the arbitration panel allow otherwise. The parties may call a reasonable number of witnesses, and may by request cause the other party to make witnesses available. In accordance with Section 18 above, the arbitrators shall resolve this dispute in accordance with the laws of the State of New York. The arbitrators shall only award direct monetary damages, and shall not award special, indirect, consequential, incidental, reliance, exemplary or punitive damages. The award (by a majority of the arbitrators) and decision shall be in writing and contain findings of fact and conclusions of law, and shall determine allocation of costs (but not attorney's fees) among the parties. Judgment upon the award may be entered by any court having jurisdiction thereof. This dispute resolution process shall not apply to bona fide third party practice in litigation brought by or against a third party, and shall not be construed to preclude either party from obtaining injunctive or other equitable relief during such dispute resolution process. During any dispute resolution process properly invoked and pursued hereunder, any applicable statute of limitations shall be deemed to be tolled.
